Holding Out

Andy Grammer

When I met you, love, I hadn't done the dirty yet (Seriously?)
Called me a unicorn, said that I didn't exist
Truth is my card was torn, the V had a couple of rips
But I was still holding on to the edge with my finger tipsWith a little bit of prayer, little bit of porn (Sorry)
Couple long nights sleeping on my own
Waiting for the right one to come along
Waiting for the right one and now I know thatI was holding out for you
Yeah, I was holding out for you
And the neighbors yeah they all hate us
'Cause they say that we go too loud
I've been holding out for you, oh yeahAnd a couple times, thought I might not make it
Laying on the bed, both of us half naked
Looking in her eyes, something in my heart said save it
Here we go again, another awkward conversationWith a little bit of prayer, little bit of porn (Sorry)
Couple long nights sleeping on my own
Waiting for the right one to come along
Waiting for the right one and now I know thatI was holding out for you
Yeah, I was holding out for you
And the neighbors yeah they all hate us
'Cause they say that we go too loud
I've been holding out for you, oh yeahCupid's secret is love starts before you need it
Cupid's secret is love starts before you need it
Cupid's secret is love starts before you need it
Cupid's secret is love starts before you need itWith a little bit of prayer, little bit of porn (Sorry)
Couple long nights sleeping on my own
Waiting for the right one to come along
Waiting for the right one and now I know thatI was holding out for you, oh
I was holding out for you
And the neighbors yeah they all hate us
'Cause they say that we go too loud
I've been holding out for you, oh yeahHolding out for you (Love starts before you need it)
I was holding out for you (Love starts before you need it)
And the neighbors yeah they all hate us
'Cause they say that we go too loud (Love starts before you need it)
Been holding out for you, oh yeah (Love starts before you need it)
