

Hate It or Love It Houston

Chamillionaire

Ha, ha, whoo, southern smoke
You're in the presence of the finest
I ain't gotta say it, you know who this is
DJ Smallz, Chamillitary mayn
They pointing at me Smallz, man on fire
I'm not that bad, right Smallz, ha, ha, let's go
(Saw them smoking) They could tell I was built to last by the way I handled my past
Man, it's gotta be hard, you giving haters a pass
I know, I should put a foot up your ass
Your realness been revoked, it's time to take off the mask Yeah, 'cause I'ma show you how to do the game
Y'all ain't making no sense, like Pootie Tang
You doing what, well, gon ahead and do your thang
After that comes the bang, like coota, mayn Cooler than the cooler man 'cause I'm not scary
Real recognize real, nigga, I'm very
I ain't gotta chase shows, ain't necessary
Still wanna pay to get me booked like a library Dreams of being rich turned to reality
Mo' money, mo' problems, I'm rich and that nigga's mad at me
If I was still broke, niggaz would see a badder me
Destiny is what it is and what it had to be Yeah, sipping Hennessey with nothing to chase
And I fold him like the stacks of money up in my safe
Use to say that I was rude, putting boys in they place
Back when Note and Flip was putting diamonds up in they face I was telling boys, F you, pay me
The whisper in my ear was singin' the same, baby
Okay, okay, you crazy
For thinking I'ma sit here and let you degrade me In this story, I was looking like the bad guy
Everybody pointing fingers at me when I pass by
So I must be the bad one
And that's why I throw up the middle when I use to tell they ass, hi But no, no, Mr. Rogers here
You gotta love the way I rep but you ain't gotta cheer
I'm in a Swiss hotel, is there a problem here?
Compliment your Cris', you can sip because we're out of beer Yeah, never cared for the Michelob
Put the bigger karat in my ear, couldn't fit my lobe
Tell my chick to come here, then I flip the strobe
Light 'cause tonight is the night where you forget your clothes After that, it's right back to going after cash
Then it's back to going hard on the bastard ass
Murk him lyrically or I can give that ass a pass
You're in the scope like the staff, down with Aftermath Hate it or love it, Sound Of Revenge gon drop
And I bet every dot, I will silence that talk
Houston's MVP, the ruler of the game is me

Chamillitary nigga, we will seeHold up, back at it again, it's your host for this evening
Chamillitary nigga, and we letting y'all know right now
This is the only tape, you should be playing
In your speakers right now, southern smo
