Supercharger (Hellalive)

Machine Head

Electricity is pulsing
Through our veins a charge
Is racing
A chain reaction through
The four of us,
To you, will make
The transformers begin
Converting into overdrivePower surge now
Exploding through
Energy, filling the ominous
Void within you
No need to live your life in
That gap
Got what you need right
Here on lightning tap, soCharge me, charge you
Charge us, charge through
Amplify, terrify
Supercharger electrifiesGetting under skin, we're
Like a rash
Spreading over your body
We are the itch you
Scratch
That doesn't seem to go
Away
Protons, neutrons, electrons
Synchronizing into oneIn sheer power all will Pale
Heaviness off the Richter
Scale
Forever crushing the Competition in their tracks
100,000 Volts we blast, soCharge me, charge you
Charge us, charge through
Amplify, terrify
Supercharger electrifiesYour little sticks of Dynamite
We're the fuse and
We're the lightElectricity is pulsing
Through our veins a

Charge is racing
A chain reaction from the Four of us,
To you, has made
It crystal clear we'll win
This war
Destiny, victoryBraveheart mindset, full
Attack
Kamikaze, never look back
In this war, a victory is if
You feel this too
You feed off us, and we
Feed off you, soCharge me, charge you
Amplify, terrify
Supercharger electrifiesCharge me, charge you
Charge us, charge through
Supercharger
Supercharger
Supercharger
Supercharger.
