Say Yes To Me

Surfer Blood

Waiting for the moon to blow
Inside your window
Say yes or no
I'm feelin'
The plot line shifting
The cards will shuffle
Now brace in malice well on everyoneOh Say yes to me, say yes to me
I love you dearly, so let me see
With all we've been through, yeah I'm still here
I'm true blueThere was a time you sang the words all wrong
To every song...however wrong, woah
Your biting your tongue now
Your voice restraining
This ship is dark it sails it falls in floodsOh Say yes to me, say yes to me
I love you dearly, so let me see
With all weve been through, yeah I'm still here
I'm true blueOnce i lived my life (I lived my life)
For people all around me
Filled myself with doubts(myself with doubts)
Now we don't have to say were sorry (no)None else can lick their wound
The way i do, when I'm with you, uh-huh
When i say that I'm true blue
I hope you know, that its all true, oh-wohOh Say yes to me, say yes to me
I love you dearly, so let me see
The girl i knew, is still true blue
I'm true blue
Ah ah ah ah ah ah
