

Wasn't Your Girlfriend

Mitchel Musso

I've got no reason to lie to you.
She never felt like you do.
If not me, there'd be somebody else in my shoes. [yeah]
I'm not the reason why you broke up.
So quit leaning, I am not your crutch.
This isn't about me and it never really was.
She deserves more than you gave her.
She was always looking for somebody to save her.
Why you trippin' on me?
I was only givin' her what she needs.
'Cause You were never there.
She needed someone there.
And So now that she is mine, why do you care?
I know I didn't miss a thing.
'Cause her finger didn't have no ring.
So, get on with your life.
I don't wanna fight.
'Cause I know she wasn't your girlfriend last night.
I can't believe you never got a clue.
She was always gonna ex you.
Now you got the message,
Can't you handling the truth? No. [thats how it sounds..sorry]

I think I know wrong from right.
And I think I know what she likes.
You're on the dark side now that she's seen the light. Yeah.
This scene is over.
Exit on cue.
You gotta let her go when there's nothing left to hold on to.
So, Why you trippin' on me?
I was only givin' her what she needs.
'Cause You were never there.
She needed someone there.
And So Now that she is mine, why do you care?
I know I didn't miss a thing.
'Cause her finger didn't have no ring.
So, get on with your life.
I don't wanna fight.
'Cause I know she wasn't your girlfriend last night.

Could be that you were only dreaming,
If she ever said that she loved you.
Why should you waste your time on something she ain't feeling?
It's no good, but there is nothing you can say or do.
Wasn't your girlfriend
Wasn't your girlfriend
Wasn't your girlfriend
