Telluride (Album Version)

Josh Gracin

When I was nineteen I threw my stuff in the car
I headed up to the Rockies, got a job at this bar Sellin' beer to the locals, just barely getting by
On the tips from the rich kids, there on Daddy's dime
But when I saw her walk in one night I knew that Id be all right inTelluride, the snow fallin' down, I was wakin' up in that sleepy little town
In her eyes my world came so alive, I never will forget the moment she arrived in TellurideWe spent that whole winter tangled up by a fire castin' shadows on the cabin wall,
Drownin' in desire
Confessin' all our secrets and laughin' out loud, so high up on that mountain,
I thought wed never come down
It was a dream we were livin' in and I was the happiest I'd ever been inTelluride, the snow fallin' down, I was wakin' up in that sleepy little town
In her eyes my world came so alive, I never will forget the moment she arrived in TellurideTelluride, whoa-oh-ohIt ended just like a movie scene and I had to play the part
Of the lover who stood there and watched her leave and me with the frozen heartIn Telluride, the snow fallin' down, standin' there alone in that sleepy little town
In her eyes, my world came so alive, I never will forget the day she said goodbyeTelluride, the snow fallin' down, I was wakin' up in that sleepy little town
In her eyes my world came so alive, I never will forget the moment she arrived in Telluride

Songwriters
VERGES/JAMESPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Universal Music Publishing Group, Chrysalis One Music, RESERVOIR MEDIA MANAGEMENT INC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/