

Meanings of Life

James Kennedy

When everything's been said
And everything's been seen
    And after all is done
        In every wildest dream
When every truth's been told
    And every lesson learned
        And every answer found
And every victory earnedWhat about us?
    What about me?
        What do we do?
    What do we mean?
        We do it all again
    We do it all again
        We do it all again
    We do it all again
