

Me Without You

Tinsley Ellis

It's just you and me and there's no one around
Feel like I'm hanging by a thread, it's a long way down
I've been trying to breathe but I'm fighting for air
I'm at an all time low with no place to go
But you're always there when everything falls apart
And it seems like the world is crashing at my feet
You like me the best when I'm a mess
When I'm my own worst enemy
You make me feel beautiful
When I have nothing left to prove
And I can't imagine how I'd make it through
There's no me without you
No, me without you, no, no
You hear what I say when I don't say a word
You are my rising sun, you're the place I run
You know how it hurts when everything falls apart
And it seems like the world is crashing at my feet
You like me the best when I'm a mess
When I'm my own worst enemy
You make me feel beautiful
When I have nothing left to prove
And I can't imagine how I'd make it through
And there's no me without you
No me without you
And there's no me without you
No me without you
And when you say, "Baby, it's gonna get better"
I believe you and I wish that somehow
I could see me the way you do
With my imperfections, you think I'm perfect
When it's not easy, you make it worth it
When everything falls apart
And it seems like the world is crashing at my feet
You like me the best when I'm a mess
When I'm my own worst enemy
You make me feel beautiful
When I have nothing left to prove
And I can't imagine how I'd make it through
There's no me without you

No me without you, no, no
No me without you
No me without you, no, no, no
