L.E.S Artistes

Lilly Wood & The Prick

What I'm searching for to tell it straight, I'm trying to build a wall Walking by myself down avenues that reek of time to kill If you see me keep going be a pass by waver Build me up, bring me down just leave me out you name dropper Stop trying to catch my eye
I see you good you forced faker
Just make it easy
You're my enemy you fast talker

I can say I hope it will be worth what I give up
If I could stand up mean for the things that I believe

What am I here for I left my home to disappear is all I'm here for myself
Not to know you
I don't need no one else
Fit in so good the hope is that you cannot see me later
You don't know me
I am an introvert an excavator I'm duckin' out for now a face in dodgy elevators Creep up and suddenly I found myself an innovator

I can say I hope it will be worth what I give up
If I could stand up mean for the things that I believe

Change, change, change, I want to get up out of my skin tell you what if I can shake it I'm 'a make this something worth dreaming of

I can say I hope it will be worth what I give up
If I could stand up mean for the things that I believe

I can say I hope it will be worth what I give up
If I could stand up mean for the things that I believe

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Hill, John / White, Santi Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/