

Everybody Wants To Feel Like You

John Prine

I wake up to a clock that's ringing
Birds are singing on my telephone line
I work all day and I chase my woman
Why don't she chase me sometime?Everybody wants to be wanted
I mean I ain't no scarecrow cop
I don't need no transalazation
I don't need no diddle bopNext time tell me that you want me
Put your little foot inside of my shoe
Next time tell me that you need me
Everybody wants to feel like youI used to love you so hard in the morning
I'd make you stutter and roll your eyes
I put your mind on a brief vacation
To the land of the lost surpriseYou got a heart that beats like my love
You got a bell that rings so true
I get this feeling that I got to tiptoe
Round every little thing you do.
