

Looking For Jane

Roxette

Where did she go? Where did she go from here?
The last time I saw her she made all the clouds disappear
She said, with a smile, "Yeah, the weather's alright"
She left her coat at home that night
Where do I begin today? Where do colors never fade?
In the sunshine, in the rain it's quite the same
It's never gonna change I'll be looking for Jane
Why did she come? Why did she come to me?
There must have been millions in the world she'd rather see
At least in my mind as time has gone by
It's always harder to laugh than to cry
Where do I begin today? Where the colors never fade?
In the sun and in the rain it's quite the same
It's never gonna change, I'll be looking for Jane
Where do I begin today? Where the sun will never fade?
In the sunshine, in the rain it's quite the same
It's never gonna change I'll be looking for Jane
Where do I begin today? Where the colors never fade?
In the sun and in the rain it's quite the same
It's never gonna change I'll be looking for Jane
Where do I begin today? Where the sun will never fade?
In the sun and in the rain it's quite the same
It's never gonna change I'll be looking for Jane
In the sunshine in the rain it's quite the same
It's never gonna change I'll be looking for Jane
