

Louisiana Rain

Trent Willmon

You couldn't make you change your mind
Couldn't stop that mornin' train
I can't stop knowin' that you're gone
Like I can't stop Louisiana rain I pour this whiskey down my soul
But nothin' ever seems to change
'Cause this pain keeps pourin' down
Like this Louisiana rain All I'm doin' is livin' one drop at a time
So won't you come back, baby
Before I go an' lose my mind
Stop this Louisiana rain All I'm doin' is livin' one drop at a time, yes I am
So won't you come back, baby
Before I go an' lose my mind
I'm gonna lose my mind Dam this river that I've cried
An' damn this callin' out your name
Damn these lonely streets I walk
An' damn this Louisiana rain I can't stop knowin' that you're gone
Like I can't stop this Louisiana rain
