

Dream Full of Dreams

Donnie & Joe Emerson

Looking back on how it was
Will it ever be the same?
I'm just kidding if I think it will 'Cause feelings are changed. Some people think our love isn't over
I guess I'm one of those who does
No worries, no charges...
What a life. I hate it. 'Cause I'd give anything in life
If I could be next to you tomorrow
When you hold me and tell me you love me
Will I dream a dream full of dreams? As the moments start to slow down
You kinda know it's going to end.
When two people start to think of themselves
What to say? It's over. But I'd give anything in life
If I could be next to you tomorrow
When you hold me and tell me you love me
Will I dream a dream full of dreams? I love you, love you [ad lib] Yes, I'd give anything in life
If I could be next to you tomorrow
For you, for you... [ad lib]
