

Radio

Alesha Dixon

Pop, rock, rhythm and blues
Anything you've got
I don't have time to choose
Big speakers
I'll sing along
Last request D.J.
I need a song He can't break my heart
If I can't hear a word (hear a word) Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
I'll drown you out
Cos I don't wanna let you go
Anything to make you forget
Cos my heart can't let it go yet
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio You spent me, frequency
If I found signal, maybe, you won't leave
Headphones, cover my ears
Keep smiling, fight back the tears He can't break my heart
If I can't hear a word (hear a word) Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
I'll drown you out
Cos I don't wanna let you go
Anything to make you forget
Cos my heart can't let it go yet
Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio Ooh, I'm turning up the radio
Ooh wa oh oh oh,
Wa oh oh oh radio
Ooh wa oh oh oh,
Wa oh oh oh radio I'll drown you out
Don't say it now
Cos I'm turning up the radio Don't say it now
I'm turning up the radio
I'll drown you out
Cos I don't wanna let you go
Anything to make you forget
'Cause my heart can't let it go yet
Don't say it now

I'm turning up the radio
