

In The Lost And Found (Honky Bach)

Elliott Smith

He held his breath to hold your hand
To walk the stairsteps in pairs
Climbing up a slippery slope
I'm in love, love I hope
Don't go home, Angelina
Stay with me
Hanging around in the lost and found
He kissed her quick, feeling weird
Lonely [Incomprehensible] and disappear
This is such a simple place
Passing time can't erase
Don't, don't, go, go home, Angelina
Make tomorrow new
Day breaks
And every morning when he wakes
He thinks of you
I'm alone, that's okay
I don't mind most of the time
I don't feel afraid to die
She was here passing by
Don't, don't, go, go home, Angelina
Stay with me
Hanging around in the lost and found
Stay with me
Hanging around in the lost and found
