Grace Potter & The Nocturnals

Don't let the sun beat you down
Steal your crown
Hold your head to the ground
Just keep on walking Don't let your soul lose control
Let you roll down the mountain you climbed Don't let the sand blind your eyes Realize they're only lies and
Keep on walking Let it cover you with grace
Let it take you from this place
And as your heart races
Pack your suitcases
And in the middle of the desert
There's an Oasis Don't let your bones turn to stone
Cause you're feeling so alone
Just keep on walking Don't count the miles
That you've climbed
Make you go blind
Cause baby there's something to find Don't hide your eyes from the light
Just hold on tight
And soon it'll be alright Let it cover you with grace
Let it take you from this place
And as your heart races
Pack your suitcases
And in the middle of the desert
There's an Oasis And you know that it's closer than you think
And you know that if you're the first to blink
And you know you gotta swim before you sink so low Let it cover you with grace
Let it take you from this place
And as your heart races
Pack your suitcases
And in the middle of the desert
There's an Oasis
