Persevere

Smash Hit Combo

Remember when we saw eye to eye?
Bound by the oath until the day we fuckin die
I thought these chains would never break
We outlasted all the weak and the fake
As time went on, we saw less of one another
I couldn't understand what happened to my brother
Then that day finally fucking came
You lost the edge, but I'll never change
You said you'd never fucking change!
You're long gone, but I'll never quit
Through think and thin
I'll stick with it
Time goes on, or so they say
I see you now
You're not the fucking same
