

Mieke

Flake Music

I want you on my side
To take the hard shots with me
You make it easy to decide
You showed your facets to me

There's a trail that ends tonight
Within the walls of this living room
All of my thought that weren't
So right and threatened me how to be

Like two strays in terminal
Throwing cinders into the sky
Drifting leaves while stoned aside
This is the race we're meant to run
