Summer

Cassadee Pope

SUMMER Cassadee Pope
Verse 1:
Rolled in as wild and free
As a Panama City at 17 Memory
Eyes blue as the July Sky
Sent shivers down my spine
Everytime that he smiled at me
Pre-Chorus:
The way he took off that white t-shirt
The way he looked walking out of that water
And it just got hotter,And Hotter
Chorus:
The tan line's fading on my sun kissed skin
Hits me like a wave when I think about it
Sublime on the boom box
Our bare feet in the sand
Makin out on the boardwalk
My heart on fire in his handsHe drove away the first of september
But I remember
Yeah I remember
He Talked like
And He Walked like
And He Looked like
And He Burned like Summer,Summer Oh
He Burned like Summer,Summer Oh
Verse 2
His kiss was a sweet salt breeze
Had a hold on me like the moon pulls the tide
Took me up in the ferris wheel
And I swear it feels like I never came doen from the high
Pre-Chorus:
I know we never said forever
But something about it felt like it would never end
Chorus:
The tan line's fading on my sun kissed skin
Hits me like a wave when I think about it
Sublime on the boom box
Our bare feet in the sand
Makin out on the boardwalk

My heart on fire in his handsHe drove away the first of september
But I remember
Yeah I remember
He Talked like
And He Walked like
And He Looked like
And He Burned like Summer,Summer Oh
Bottle rocket sparks in the florida sky Summer Summer
Something that brights gotta burn out sometimeChorus:
The tan line's fading on my sun kissed skin
Hits me like a wave when I think about it
Sublime on the boom box
Our bare feet in the sand
Makin out on the boardwalk
My heart on fire in his hands
