It's Too Late

Aldo Nova

You call me on the telephone
And you say you'll never do it again
But you've hurt me once too often, dear
And it's just a little late to repentAll your begging and pleading won't help you
And your lying and cheating - I'll take no more
'Cause I told you before and I'll tell you againYou liar
Yeah, you liar
It's too late, it's too late
It's too late, it's too late'Cause I know (I know)
That I never wanna see you again
And now don't you go
Telling lies about me to your friends'Cause I've heard them before and you know it
Then I've taken this long just to show it
So take all of your heartaches and leave me alone
'Cause I know, you know, they know, ohIt's too late - I've walked out the door
It's too late to tell me you're sorry
It's too late to go any higher
Oh, you liar
Yes, you lie, liar
I know you lie, liar
Liar, yeah, yeahSo you call me on the telephone
Saying that you'll never do it again
But you've hurt me one too many times
And now I'm afraid it's the endAll your begging and pleading won't help you
And your lying and cheating - I'll take no more
'Cause I told you before and I'll tell you again
'Cause I know, you know, and they know, oh yeahIt's too late - I've walked out the door
It's too late to tell me you're sorry
It's too late to go any higher
Oh, you liar
Yes, you lie, liar
I know you lie, liarIt's too late - I've walked out the door
It's too late to tell me you're sorry
It's too late to go any higher
Oh, you liar
Yes, you lie, liar
I know you lie, liarIt's too late - I've walked out the door
It's too late to tell me you're sorry
It's too late to go any higher

Oh, you liar
Yes, you lie, liar
I know you lie, liar
LiarIt's too late - I've walked out the door
It's too late to tell me you're sorry
It's too late to go any higher
Oh, you liar
