

Send Me Home

Murder By Death

rooms full of spirits surround me they're as real as they can be every morning i plant my shaky feet on an earth so hard and meanbody's broken, systems fail you care for me to no avail no reward, no, its not fair and i'd be on my way if i wasn't so damn scaredohhhhh, will you send me home?
will you send me home?
i can't go but i can't go on i want to stay but i ain't got long will you send me home?
time to move onevery morning i'm in pain i weep to greet the day get me out of this wretched shell crack me open, wish me wellput me in a simple box in a patch of dirt send me on to greener pastures, won't be the worst whatever comes is mine and mine alone and if i have to ask you, will you send me home?ohhhhh, will you send me home?
will you send me home?
i want to stay but i ain't got longwill you send me home?
