High Priestess

Uriah Heep

You, who brought the sunshine to my eyes
You, who wondered through my sad disguise
And I have a love that cannot die
For you
High priestess of my heart
Tell me that we won't part
Then let's get together in the sky
Leave the lonely world to wonder why
For we have a love they can't deny
So true
High priestess of my heart
Tell me that we won't part
