

Flat Beauty

Robert Pollard

May I cause you more pain than that?
Cost you more time than you realized?
There will be no more following eyes May I help you arrange your beauty flat?
Oil down your wardrobe with color and flair?
Jump up and down in your rock & roll chair? Shout out the glass together, alright
Proud is a low-life sign
And pride alone is slightly lame
She's got a lovely line on her spine So I'll cause you less pain tonight
Don't need much more
No, really, it's alright
I'll open up real wide
Before I get along...

Songwriters

POLLARD, ROBERT E. JR. Published by Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>