

The Tombstone

God Dethroned

Darkness surrounding me
I'm waiting here till you free meLifting the tombstone
And what do you see
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be freeDon't wait too long
The worms, they're raging onLifting the tombstone
And what do you see
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be freeImprisoned in this box with blackness
Feels like you've forgotten meBattles in the north
Bats in the sky
South of Heaven
Is where it all went wrongDigging a hole
In the black hole sun
Draining the chalice of blood
With the body of ChristMoving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstoneDo you hear the sound
Of the wind in the trees?
Do you hear the grass growing
My body decomposing?It's cold, it's so cold
It's cold, six feet underDo you hear the sound
Of the wind in the trees?
Do you hear the grass growing
My body decomposing?Darkness surrounding me
I'm waiting here till you set me freeLifting the tombstone
And what do you see?
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be freeDon't wait too long
The worms, they're raging onLifting the tombstone
And what do you see?
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be freeBattles in the north
Bats in the sky
South of Heaven
Is where it all went wrongDigging a hole
In the black hole sun
Draining the chalice of blood

With the body of Christ Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone
Moving the tombstone Lifting the tombstone
And what do you see?
Lifting the tombstone
A skeleton waiting to be free
