Jig Of Life

Kate Bush

Hello, old lady
I know your face well
I know it wellShe says, "Ooh-na-na-na"
They sitting in your mirror
And now is the place where the crossroads meet
Will you look into the future?Never, never say goodbye
To my part of your life
No, no, no, no, no
Oh, oh, oh"Let me live"
She said, "Cmon and let me live, girl"
She said, "Cmon and let me live, girl"This moment in time
She said, "It doesnt belong to you"
She said, "It belongs to me"And to your little boy and to your little girl
And the one hand clapping
Where on your palm is my little line
When youre written in mine
As an old memory
Ooh-na-na-naNever, never say goodbye
To my part of your life
Oh no, no, no, no, noNever, never, never
Never, never let me goShe said, "Cmon and let me live, girl"
She said, "Cmon and let me live, girl"I put this moment here
I put this moment here
I put this moment over here
Over hereCant you see where memories are kept bright?
Tripping on the water like a laughing girl
Time in her eyes is spawning past life
One with the ocean and the woman unfurledHolding all the love that waits for you here
Catch us now for I am your future
A kiss on the wind and well make the land
Come over here to where, when lingersWaiting in this empty world
Waiting for then, when the lifespray cools
For now does ride in on the curl of the wave
And you will dance with me in the sunlit poolsWe are of the going water and the gone
We are of water in the holy land of water
And all thats to come runs in
With the thrust on the strand
