

Dixie

Ashley Monroe

If I ever get out of Dixie
I'm gonna buy me some brand new shoes
I'm gonna have somebody shine 'em up
Soon as I pay my dues If I ever get out of Tennessee
Out 'neath this dust and dirt
I'm gonna live my life like a high and mighty
Gonna get what I deserve And when I cross that line, oh man
I'll sing a brand new song
Instead of sittin' here by the railroad tracks
Whistlin' Dixie all day long I'm so tired of paying, praying for my sins
Lord, get me out of Dixieland
In Jesus' name, Amen It was the mines that killed my daddy
It was the law that killed my man
It was the Bible Belt that whipped me
When I broke the Fifth Command Now I don't hate the weather
Now I don't hate the land
But if I had it my way
I'd never see this place again And when I cross that line, oh man
I'll sing a brand new song
Instead of sittin' here by the railroad tracks
Whistlin' Dixie all day long I'm so tired of paying, praying for my sins
Lord, get me out of Dixieland
In Jesus' name, Amen repeat chorus When I tread out of these parts
Look me up on the other side
'Cause I'll be damned if I go down
In Dixie when I die
Yeah, I'll be damned if I go down
In Dixie when I die

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>