Blood Brothers

Iron Maiden

And if you're taking a walk through the garden of life

What do you think you'd expect you would see?

Just like a mirror reflecting the moods of your life

And in the river reflections of meJust for a second a glimpse of my father I see

And in a movement he beckons to me

And in a moment the memories are all that remain
And all the wounds are reopening againWe're blood brothers, we're blood brothers
We're blood brothers, we're blood brothersAs you look all around at the world in dismay

What do you see, do you think we have learned?

Not if you're taking a look at the war torn affray

Out in the streets where the babies are burnedWe're blood brothers, we're blood brothers We're blood brothers, we're blood brothersThere are times when I feel I'm afraid for the world

There are times I'm ashamed of us all

When you're floating on all the emotion you feel

Reflecting the good and the badWill we ever know what the answer to life really is?

Can you really tell me what life is?

Maybe all the things that you know that are precious to you

Could be swept away by fate's own handWe're blood brothers, we're blood brothers

We're blood brothers, we're blood brothersWhen you think that we've used all our chances

And the chance to make everything right

Keep on making the same old mistakesMakes untipping the balance so easy When we're living our lives on the edge

Say a prayer on the book of the deadWe're blood brothers, we're blood brothers We're blood brothers, we're blood brothersWe're blood brothers, we're blood brothers We're blood brothers, we're blood brothersAnd if you're taking a walk through the garden of life
