Sexual Animals

Sarah Fimm

Please come in the back door, Close it behind you,
I won't ever tell them you're here.
Me? I like the trapdoors, the keeping of a secret.
Your affinity for deepness pulls me down.
Sexual animals.
Come inside of me just enough to hurt this body.
I know that you know how.
Come inside of me you know it's exactly what I need.
So careful where you're touching, I'm not ready yet.
What is there to catch you if the safety net has ripped.
Wide-eyed you look me over, unbuttoning my skin.
I take a deep breath in.
Sexual animals.
Crawl inside of me just enough to hurt this body.
I know that you know how.
Come inside of me you know it's exactly what I need.
Your entourage is waiting by the car while I sit here bonding with some brand new scars.
Lets kiss goodbye, close your eyes. "Sleep" he said, you're already dead.
Sexual Animals.
Come inside of me just enough to hurt this body.
I know that you know how. Come inside of me. Come inside of me.
