Nahko and Medicine for the People

It is written
It is written
It is written
Gathering the nations
Prepare my relations
For spiritual battle, battle
I have my doubts
But there's no time for that now
Gotta recharge my channel
For medicate, resist, meditate
Keep righteous walking
Steady load and locking
There ain't no stoppin'
This bullet, load it, pull it
Bullet, load it, pull it
Fully-loaded poet It was changing so fast
I barely kept up with it
Calling on my spirit guides
I was up in Sitka
South-east Alaska
Forgot to ask her
If I'd survive the next chapter
Born in the 'Frisco, city of angels
Above the prophecies, up upon the table
Tangled in my spirit teacher's angles
Middle finger to the Star-Spangled
And I know I'm ready
Big message, heavy
Gotta learn to carry
What comes to me directly, said It is written
It is written
It is written
Gathering the nations
Prepare my relations
For spiritual battle, battle
I have my doubts
But there's no time for that now
Gotta recharge my channel
For medicate, resist, meditate

Keep righteous walking
Steady load and locking
There ain't no stoppin'
This bullet, load it, pull it
Bullet, load it, pull it
Fully-loaded poet
So I went to see my sister
Past, present, future
Help me remember
How to surrender
Oh, Yellowstone
Great mystery unknown
And if you blow
Poca River still flows
Puerto Rico
Part of my ancestry
Some day I'll go
Part of my destiny
Minneapolis, cause it romances
Anishinaabe, sharing me the wisdom
I know we're ready
What comes to us directly, said
It is written
It is written
Gathering the nations
Prepare my relations
But there's no time for that now
For meditate, resist, meditate
