

It's Alright

Groove Theory

Don't know about my future
Judging from my past
Everything I worked hard for Never seemed to last
Whenever it looks like nothing
Is ever gonna go my way
I just have these 3 words to say:Baby it's alright
(alright, alright)
it's gonna be (alright), take it from me
Be alright (alright, alright)
Oh yes
(alright)
It's gonna be alrightYeah
It's gonna be alright
Yeah
It's gonna be alrightI can't say life is easy
Things can bring us pain (?)
If I can get through this hardship
Then I know what I've gained
I got a stronger mind,
A stronger heart
A stronger soul to pull me through
And when it feels this way, al I say is:Baby it's alright
(alright, alright)
It's gonna be (alright), take it from me
It's gonna be alright (alright, alright)Yeah, it's gonna be alright
Yeah, it's gonna be alright(Everything's gonna be alright
I listen to my heart in my life)
Take this strength inside
To help me live my life
(Everything's gonna be alright
I listen to my heart in my life)Keep it all in stride
'Cause this is my time(alright, alright)
Ooh
(alright, alright)
Take it from me
It's gonna be alright
