

Cannonball

Justin Prime

(feat. Showtek)

You and I have lost our minds
I don't even know which thoughts are mine
Projected by your fear inside
But I could see the light
Say, when you're ready to escape
I'll be your shelter from the rain
I'll pull you under me
We can make the ground shake,
Like an earthquake
Like an earthquake
Like an earthquake (quake)
Show us what you got,
When the motherf-cking beat drops

Make the, make the ground shake,
Like an earthquake
Like an earthquake

You and I are honesty
A sedated type-A intensity
When it's me against you, and
It's you against me
It's so hard to breathe
Say, when you're ready to escape
I'll be your shelter from the rain
I'll pull you under me
We can make the ground shake,
Like an earthquake
Say, when you're ready to escape
I'll be your shelter from the rain
I'll pull you under me
We can make the ground shake,
Like an earthquake
Like an earthquake
Like an earthquake
Like an earthquake (quake)
Show us what you got,

When the motherf-cking beat drops

Make the, make the ground shake
Like an earthquake

Like an earthquake
