

Exit the Inferno

Transcender

Oh --

Are you picking up what I'm laying down?
Will you join me, my friends for one more last time around?
There are so many people over eighteen
In Ft. Lauderdale,
In Ft. Lauderdale right now
Right now

Folks are going to have to go to so many funerals
In Ft. Lauderdale, in Ft. Lauderdale
Unless everyone lives to be one hundred and sixty
Which makes 12 billion people as if
We're not already full

Exit the Inferno!
Exit the Inferno!

And it's such a short trip through humanity's lifetime
The gift from our elders is the shell of what earth used to be
With all of this noise you can hardly yourself thinking
Stop! Hey, what's that sound? It sounds like it's crashing down!

Exit the Inferno!
Exit the Inferno!
