If I Was Your Man

Joan Osborne

Floating above you
Beyond the naked eye
Blue dreams about you
Keep playing in my mind
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
I'm just a satellite so lazy in the breeze
Ready to fly away, I need your gravity
When I run down the path the turns look all the same
And if I lose my way your mind will call my name
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
Let's go outside to a dark place
Where the kitty cat hides
Put on your fake wings
Give the moon a ride
When you're lonely for the angel inside
3:30 in the morning is too easy for you
But when it comes without a warning
What are you gonna do this time?
You gonna do this time?
Floating above you beyond the naked eye
Blue dreams about you comes rushing through my mind
Branded with thoughts of you they're tattooed on my sou
Why don't they seem to fade is what I'll never know?
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
Oh, if I was
Oh, if I was your man
