

Third Stone From the Sun (OST The Dreamers)

Jimi Hendrix

"lady's and gentlemen, the Jimi Hendrix experience." "I see that we meet again hmmm. yeah well, well, well.

dig,

Dig, I'd like to get something strait, we umm we got tired
Of the experience, and every once in a while we're blowing
Our minds too much, so we decided to change everything around.
And a call it 'gypsy sons and rainbows' for short nothin' but A band of gypsies. we have billy cox playin' bass, and um from Nashville Tennessee we have lary lee playin' guitar over there,
We got juma playin' congos over there, juma, and we have granny Goose, oh I'm sorry Mitch Mitchell on drums over there, and we Got jerry velez on congos too. you got yours truly on Pete Whistle,
What me worry? gives us about a minute and a half to tune up ok.
Like we only had about two rehearsals so a we'll only do a primary
Rhythm thing. (someone in the background) I have mine thank you
I have mine thank you, baby."
