

Diane (Summertime)

Robert Randolph & The Family Band

On my way to Tennessee
Rolling east on Route 40
Calling you, I can't get through
If I'm so down then why ain't you? I know you used to love me
Those shoes that I bought you
Your mama said you'd leave me
The truth I find you sleeping 'Cause I'll be seeing you next summertime
You be faithful, you know that I am
I'll be seeing you next summertime
You so special, my lovely Diane Detroit Rock City, listening to Kiss
You know I love a night like this
Speeding while I'm trying to get to you
When you see me just don't act like I'm a fool I'm not just for the business
Don't hide behind the pillars
You always said you need me
You let the truth out, I find you sleeping 'Cause I'll be seeing you next summertime
You be faithful, you know that I am
I'll be seeing you next summertime
You so special, my lovely Diane Can't get her out of mind today
Can't wait, can't wait just to get away
Missing her for everyday Can't get her out of mind today
Can't wait, can't wait just to get away
Missing her for everyday Can't get her out of mind today
Can't get her out of mind today I'll be seeing you next summertime
You be faithful, you know that I am
I'll be seeing you next summertime
You so special, my lovely Diane I'll be seeing you next summertime
You'll be faithful, you know that I am
I'll be seeing you next summertime
You so special, my lovely Diane You so special, my lovely Diane
My lovely Diane
You so special, my lovely Diane

Songwriters

RANDOLPH, ROBERT/MORGAN, DANYEL/RANDOLPH, MARCUS Published by

Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing, Universal Music Publishing Group Song Discussions is protected by U.S.

Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>