

Enough for You

Ron Sunshine

I've lived enough to know that
Love's not everything you need
God knows, I know there are still so many things
You wanna be
I've seen enough to understand
The pain you're goin' through
It's just the shame to know
I'm not enough for you
It hurts to see the hurt beneath your laughter
And your lies
And try in vain to feel the painful secret
Locked behind your eyes
And I can't even blame you
For the things you're turnin' to
It's just the shame to know
I'm not enough for you
I've given you the best
Of every thing I have to give
Now there's nothing left for me to leave you
But my will to live
I hope some day
Somebody, somewhere loves you like I do
It's just the shame to know
I'm not enough for you
