

Annabelle

Dieter Meier

Annabelle I know she's dangerous and I should stay away
I know it's fruitless I'm gonna see her anyway
Everyday my demons want me do it again
Trying to escape, but my demons always win. Another day another week, I'm trying to be brave
But then I dial her number I know I'm just her slave! I know she doesn't love me, that for her it's just a game
I know I'm defenseless I have to see her all the same.
And I know I'm just a toy another toy, another toy, but still A toy on her remote control I know I lost my will.
Another day another week, I'm trying to be brave
But then I dial her number I know I'm just her slave! (2x)-Good evening Annabelle, I say She asks -How have you been?
Why did you never call me? Don't you like me Meier? But here I am. It's all your choice. I never lied. I love my toys. Don't look so sad. Let's just have fun. Another night. How it all begun? Another day another week I'm trying to be brave
But then I dial her number I know I'm just her slave! (3x)
