John Riley

Joan Baez

Fair young maid all in a garden Strange young man, passerby He said, "Fair maid, will you marry me?" This then, sir, was her replyOh, no, kind sir, I cannot marry thee For I've a love who sails all on the sea He's been gone for seven years Still no man shall marry meWhat if he's in some battle slain Or drowned in the deep salt sea? What if he's found another love And he and his love both married be?If he's in some battle slain I will go and mourn all on his grave And if he's drowned in the deep salt sea I'll be true to his memoryAnd if he's found another love And he and his love both married be I'll wish them health and happiness Where they dwell across the seaHe picked her up all in his arms And kisses gave her one, two, three Said, we've no more, my own true love I am your long lost John Riley! Said, we've no more, my own true love I am your long lost John Riley!
