Noteworthy Instruction

Morning Again

try your best to be something you're not too concerned with style to see their plot buy into their lie and give all you've got you have fallen victimyou have become a victimstriving to be different you've become so much like everyone elseyour rebellion, your allegiance to a sound the only person that you're fooling is yourselfbow down to your icon let them lead you where they may bow down to your icon follow blindly, it's the only wayis it appealing, to charade a life that isn't true
