

Fistful Of Tears

Maxwell

Feel just like a weight has lifted, how can I repay you?
Help me understand currency, a fistful of tears I can afford
Fight of your life is not the cost, time will reveal
All along you're the one who's losing
'Cause I, I go insane, crazy sometimes
Tryin' to keep you from losing your mind
Open your eyes, see what's in front of your face
Save me my fistful of tears
You can make it disappear, girl
All you got to do is just raise up, face up, stay up
All things will heal, we'll feel it lifted and kissed from this curse
Don't you let it go, don't you let it go
'Cause I, I go insane, crazy sometimes
Tryin' to keep you from losing your mind
Open your eyes, see what's in front of your face
Save me my fistful of tears
We gon' fight the war, we gon' fight our fears
The only thing I wanna throw is a fistful of tears
We gon' fight the war, we gon' fight our fears
The only thing I gotta throw is a fistful of tears
We gon' fight the war, we gon' fight our fears
The only thing I wanna throw is a fistful of tears
Because I, I go insane, crazy sometimes
Tryin' to keep you from losing your mind
Open your eyes, see what's in front of your face
And save me
I go insane, crazy sometimes
Tryin' to keep you from losing your mind
Open your eyes, see what's in front of your face
Save me my fistful of tears
I go insane, crazy sometimes
