Hate Me

Terminal Choice

You hate me for the things I do
You hate me for the things I say
You hate me for the way that you feel
You hate me cause I run away from youI know we both want the same
But you know it's not the easy way
I'm confused, I'm not ready for this
I'm afraid to fall in love with youyou want my body and you want my soul
You want me for the rest of your life
You know that I feel the same
But I'm to weak
Can't you understand?I know why you wanna hate me
But I think you know that it's not true
You really wanna love me
But you try to hate me, try to hate me
