Slipping Away

Tanlines

[Verse 1]
Was I running backwards, or was it all just a dream?
Was a beautiful morning, it was all I could see
Should I ask her when it's over, should I ask her to take it slow?
I don't know
I should offer an anecdote about some place I used to go
My MO[Pre-Chorus]
It's you, sometimes, it's you
You, sometimes, it's you, it's you
And it's true, sometimes, it's true sometimes
True, sometimes, it's true sometimes, it's true[Chorus]
We were just both slippin, slipping away
We were just both slippin, slipping away
We were just both slippin[Verse 2]
Am I running backwards, or am I just asleep?
And I'm right in the middle, of a beautiful dream
You were listing all the stuff that's cool, asking me to take it slow
But I don't know
And I'm looking for an anecdote, something to speed it up or make it slow
Before you know[Pre-Chorus] + [Chorus]

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/