Chris Palser

Sometimes it's so hard
I only get so far
find myself
finding ways
to disappoint you
is it better this way
almost every day
explain myself
don't be mean
this is not about you
so I'm asking you please
one last wish for me
one request of youdon't break this we'll find our way we'll save this you're not the only one here with nothing left to lose please wait
don't just walk away I wouldn't leave you here wouldn't give up on youI heard it in your sigh slowly realized
not just me
now I see
it was breaking you too I've been here for some time a little out of rhyme
there's no way
I can go through a day
in a life without you
so I'm asking you please
one last wish for me
one request of yousomehow this is changing me now made a break from the crowd I needed space
I needed to be by myself will you stay here with me baby don't leave

I'm begging you
please
