

Stole My Heart

One Direction

Harry: (waiting for a girl like you)Liam:

The light shines,

It's getting hot on my shoulders.

I don't mind,

This time it doesn't matter

Cause your friends,

They look good, but you look betterDon't you know all night I've been waiting for a girl like you to come around, round, round?Harry and Niall:

Under the lights tonight

You turned around, and you stole my heart

With just one look, when I saw your face

I fell in love

It took a minute girl to steal my heart tonight (eh eh eh eh)

With just one look, yeah Zayn:(eh eh eh eh)

Been waiting for a girl like youLiam:

I'm weaker

My words fall and they hit the ground

Oh life, come on head, don't you fail me now?

I start to say,

"I think I love you," but I make no soundYou know 'cause all my life, I've been waiting for a girl like you to come aroundHarry and Niall:

Under the lights tonight

You turned around, and you stole my heart

With just one look, when I saw your face

I fell in love

It took a minute girl to steal my heart tonight (eh eh eh eh)

With just one look, yeah Zayn:(eh eh eh eh)

Been waiting for a girl like you

Zayn:

There is no other place that I would rather be

Than right here with you tonight

As we lay on the ground I put my arms around you

And we can stay here tonight

Cause there's so much that I wanna say, I wanna sayHarry and Niall:

Under the lights tonight

You turned around, and you stole my heart

With just one look, when I saw your face

I fell in love

It took a minute girl to steal my heartUnder the lights tonight (eh eh eh eh)

You turned around, and you stole my heart (eh eh eh eh)

With just one look, when I saw your face (eh eh eh eh)

I fell in love

It took a minute girl (eh eh eh eh) to steal my heart tonight (eh eh eh eh) With just one look, yeah (eh eh eh eh)

Been waitin' for a girl like you

Been waitin' for a girl like you
