Seven

Ã‚Â¡Forward, Russia!

Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that JollyOh, bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that JollyPeople might say that you're always sleeping
But you leave with your point of view
Do you think you would it take a disaster
To make people see, I doRight at the core, right at the core
Do you leave? No
Right at the core, right at the core
Do you leave? I'm a funeral pyreBut bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that JollyWhat is it something about you can't say?
What is it something about you can't say?
What is it that you can't say?
Bring that JollyPeople might say that you're always sleeping
But you leave with your point of view
Do you think you would it take a disaster
To make people see, I doRight at the core, right at the core
Do you leave? No
Do you leave? NoDown to the city underneath
The conscious areas of mind
But I hope you have the time
To realize that you're aliveI know
I know
I knowSo people might say that you're always sleeping
But you leave with your point of view
Do you think you would it take a disaster
To make people see, I doRight at the core, right at the core
Do you leave? No
Right at the core, twisted and raw
Do you leave? NoBring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Bring that Jolly Roger on home
Yes, I know you're not alone
