

Honey

Marine Girls

Honey wants possession of my heart
Wants to know the secret of my dreams
Doesn't understand by treachery
All I know I love him forever
Or until I find another boy La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la (la la)
La la la la la la la Honey wants the sole keys to my love
Wants to know the reasons
Why I'm feeling blue
Doesn't understand me when I say
I love him everyday
Or at least until this feeling goes away La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la (la la)
La la la la la la la Honey holds his breath
And waits to see me
Can't trust me when his back is turned
He locks the door, I steal the key
But honey knows
I never lie and I'll be here
Until this feeling dies La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la (la la)
La la la la la la la
