

Just Sane Enough

All the Little Pieces

They tell me the best revenge is just to wear a smile
But that just ain't my style
No that just ain't my style
Try to hurt me and you will be hurting for a while Hurting for a while
You'll be hurting for a whileChorus:
Just strong enough to not let em' phase me
Just sane enough to hide my crazy
Just sane enough
Just sane enoughDarlin' I am made of steel, I've got an indestructible heart
Who do you think you are
Oh, who do you think you are
You tried to put a knife in my back, but I ain't got no scars
I ain't go scars
'cause I turned it back around on youChorusI believe in karma and I'm just speeding it up a bit
Speeding it up a bit
Speeding it up a bit
You're gonna get itChorus
