Stay Alive (studio)

Trapt

Oh, your fingers were crossed behind your back
Before you ever gave me a chance
But now I have learned to trust myself
And I don't need anyone elseNo one's here to light the candle
No one's here to light the way
It's something I will have to handle
My wayI've got to open up my eyes
And find a way to kill the boredom
I watch the time go by
Now it's time for me to get mineOut of room, out of places to hide
Backed up in the corner I know I will stay alive
Out of room, out of places to hide
Backed up in the corner I know I will stay aliveThe lights are still on
And I am still here there's nothing left to fear
A vision I've seen, a fire will burn
No longer will I wait my turnNo one's here to light the candle
No one's here to light the way
It's something I will have to handle
My wayI've got to open up my eyes
And find a way to kill the boredom
I watch the time go by
And now it's time for me to get mineOut of room, out of places to hide
Backed up in the corner I know I will stay alive
Out of room, out of places to hide
Backed up in the corner I know I will stay aliveStay alive
Stay alive
This time, this time
It's time for me to get mineOut of room, out of places to hide
Backed up in the corner I know I will stay alive
Out of room, out of places to hide
Backed up in the corner I know I will stay aliveI will stay alive, I will stay alive
I will stay alive, I will stay alive
