Gallows Pole

Demons & Wizards

Endless stairs, a guiding light
It seems to shine bright but it's cold
Wicked signs will mark our way
Wicked signs will mark our wayMark our way
Mark our way
Mark our wayCall me messiah, I am God
A true Lord, but alone
Call me a liar
Oh, I won't deny that I'm madAm I evil, am I good?
Mad existence, faith and greed
The universe a gallows pole
Extinction of the living soulTowards the sun
We'll keep moving
Fate I hold in hand
Dancing till the endI am condemned
Oh, I bring all mankind's end
The end
Oh, I've seen all life dieA shattered heart
An empty soul
One false move
And it took its tollThe rising of an evil seed
I can't describe the pain I feel
Outside it's dark, inside it's cold
The sun still shines bright but its time is shortEndless stairs a guiding light
That once was warm, but now it's bitter cold
It's freezing hearts, it's freezing souls
Soon icy shades will cover allIt pretends to be alive
It pretends to be alive
Be alive, be alive, be aliveCollapse of a mother, all will die
The void, it frightens me
Oh, I've faced the demon
And it dwells insideAnd when I laugh, it's tears I hide
And when I cry, it's joy inside
A foul disease has stained the land
The bitter harvest of a dying bloomAnd when I cry it's joy inside
A wicked smile for all the tears I hide
It hurts to hold all the pain I feel
The bitter harvest of a dying bloomNothing is real
Nothing but him
