Maze

Fuel Fandango

Running Escaping from my fears Instead of being free Running Escaping from my fears Running through the fears Instead of being free Let me face it You will see it To be better To be me Life is getting harder Now I'm in a Maze But I just have to keep walking Life is getting harder Now I'm in a Maze But I can find the end, the end Just breath Breath When I was running through my fears Without my senses I heard my inner voice When I was running through my fears Without my senses Reminds me I don't have a??? Without my senses There is a path to trace but You gotta keep on There is a path to trace but You gotta keep on There is a path to trace but You gotta keep on There is a path to trace but You gotta keep on There is a path to trace but You gotta keep on There is a path to trace but You gotta keep on There is a path to trace but

You gotta keep on

There is a path to trace but

You gotta keep on

Life is getting harder

Now I'm in a Maze

But I can find the end

Life is getting harder

Now I'm in a Maze

But I just have to keep walking

Life is getting harder

Now I'm in a Maze

But I can find the end

You gotta keep on
